Rationale for the Consent Solicitation

From February 2022 onwards the United States of America, the European Union, the United Kingdom and other nations have imposed additional sanctions against the Russian Federation and Russian persons in connection with events in Ukraine. The sanctions, among other things, significantly disrupted the existing framework and infrastructure for delivery and settlement of securities, including the formal process of cancelling securities that are purchased by issuers in the market.

On 9 May 2022, the Trustee informed the Issuer of its decision to resign as trustee in connection with the Notes citing sanctions introduced by the European Union as the rationale for its action.

In light of such circumstances and to ensure that investors are able to benefit from having a trustee that is able to act in the interests of the Noteholders, the Issuer is, in particular, soliciting consents of the Noteholders in respect of each Series of Notes:

- (i) to remove the Trustee and replace it with the New Trustee in respect of each relevant Series of Notes;
- (ii) to amend the procedure for retirement of trustees by allowing the trustee, the Issuer or the Company to appoint a co-trustee in the event of introduction of, or changes in, legislation or regulations or imposition of any applicable sanctions or other restrictions resulting in an inability of the trustee to act in respect of each relevant Series of Notes;
- (iii) to amend provisions of the Trust Deed (including the Terms and Conditions) and the Loan Agreement to permit a reduction of liability under the Trust Deed and the Loan Agreement if the Company or its Subsidiary surrenders Notes for cancellation and such Notes are cancelled (the "Surrendered and Cancelled Notes") or if the Company gives notice of designation of Notes held by the Company or its Subsidiary as cancelled irrespective of whether they are actually cancelled (the "Designated Notes"), and
- (iv) to change the grace period applicable to payments under the Loan Agreement to 14 calendar days in order to make provision for longer cash transfer periods caused by operational and technical disruptions outside the Company's control.

The Company believes that such modifications would afford a greater flexibility to adapt the existing structure of Notes to the unpredictable regulatory and sanctions environment and avoid any obstacles in servicing the Issuer's obligations under the Notes and the Company's obligations under the Loan Agreement and, therefore, would be in the best interests of the Noteholders.

Participation in the Consent Solicitation

In order to be eligible to participate in any Proposal, a Noteholder should deliver, or arrange to have delivered on its behalf, a valid Voting Instruction in favour of, against or abstaining from the Extraordinary Resolutions in respect of the relevant Series of Notes to the Solicitation, Information and Tabulation Agent by no later than the Voting Deadline. Only Noteholders who hold the Notes as of the Record Date may submit a Voting Instruction.

Noteholders should note that:

- (i) each beneficial owner should deliver, or arrange to have delivered on its behalf, a Voting Instruction in respect of such beneficial owner's Notes; and
- (ii) a beneficial owner must not deliver, or arrange to have delivered on its behalf, more than one Voting Instruction in respect of the same Notes.

Individuals nominated by the Noteholders or one or more employees or representatives of the Solicitation, Information and Tabulation Agent nominated by the Solicitation, Information and Tabulation Agent may be appointed as sub-proxies for the purpose of attending the Meeting and voting for or against the Extraordinary Resolutions.

If the Extraordinary Resolutions are duly passed at the relevant Meeting duly convened and held in accordance with the Trust Deed (and, solely in relation to the Amendments, the Deed of Amendment to the Supplemental Trust Deed and the Deed of Amendment to the Loan Supplement are executed), the relevant Proposals will become effective and binding on all the relevant Noteholders, whether or not present at the Meeting.

Only Noteholders who hold the Notes as of the Record Date may submit Voting Instructions.
