About Rothman Securities

Rothman Securities has been servicing the local traders of United Kingdom since 1990 and recently, it has expanded its operations globally, establishing satellite offices in some key cities around the world including Luxembourg and the United States. We have provided global futures and options trading services to our clients in the Europe for more than 20 years now.

Our company is a full service commodity futures broker, discount commodities broker, online trading futures, managed futures and options brokerage firm. We have built our business reputation on the premise that an educated trader should make better trades.

Our mission is to provide futures traders with state of the art order entry capabilities; extremely competitive commission rates and the professional service that today's futures traders demand.
